Cities of the Interior Series by Anaïs Nin

Cities of the Interior (1959) by Anaïs Nin is a large scale poetic novel that represents the height of literary style that was inspired by Surrealism, and the modernism of the early decades of the 20th Century. It is a monumental novel written by an author who has stayed true to the esthetic ideal of poetic prose, and it is an innovative novel that anticipates the direction of the 21st Century: with an inter(text)uality that is precise in psychological insight, with a narrator who is ...
