The shadow self hides the light, our unique essence, what makes us who we are. It effectively creates more shadow and less light. As we work with the shadow and release it ' s hold over our lives, we free up and meet the light hidden within. This gives us more of our unique self, more of our own light to create what we truly want. For example, the person who is shut off sexually due to fear of annihilation of self, may find that the shadow was trying to keep them
